

Supplementary Material to “Molecular evolution and functional divergence of alcohol dehydrogenases in animals, fungi and plants”

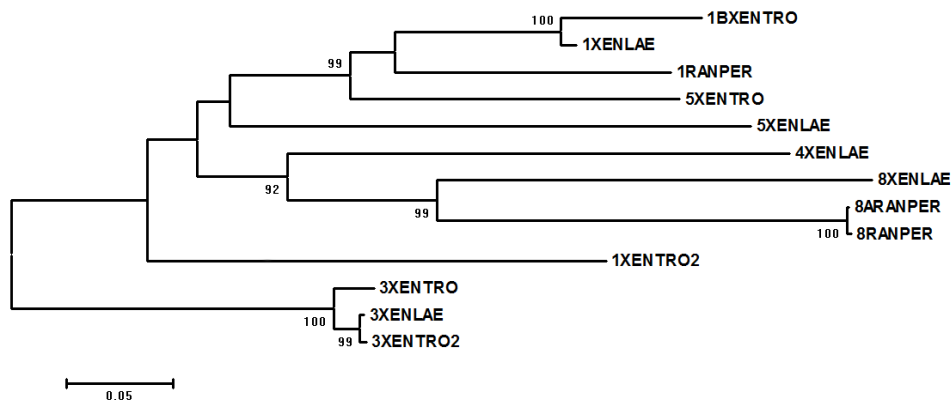

Figure S2 – Evolutionary relationships of amphibian ADH proteins obtained using the neighbor-joining method and Poisson-corrected amino acid distances. Bootstrap values higher than 80% are shown. Scale bar indicates the sequence divergence level.